Student Interviewer's Comments

Antonia is polite, intelligent, and talented. She has a very strong artistic side and lots of interests. Although she can be a little bit shy in the beginning, she opens up and becomes quite talkative. Antonia has previously participated in a brief exchange program and had no trouble adapting to a different culture and language. She was able to integrate quickly into a new neighborhood and family routine. This experience has helped prepare her for a year with an American family. Antonia's host family is sure to have a great time with her.

Additional Comments

Antonia is creative, friendly, and has a good sense of humor. She loves playing the flute and says that it helps her to hear the world in a whole new way. She also composes songs on the piano and, once a year, dances in recitals. She enjoys drawing, reading books, and writing stories in her spare time. Antonia is excited about meeting new people and making new friends. Antonia has volunteered her time to tutor other students and is interested in participating in community service while in the US to help the ill or elderly.

About Ayusa

Since 1980, AYUSA has provided opportunities for more than 40,000 students from the U.S. and over 75 countries around the world to live and study through our programs. As the premier youth exchange organization in the United States, AYUSA strives to deliver the highest quality programs to students, host families, schools and communities. Student participants aged 15 through 18 learn about a new culture by living with a volunteer host family, making new friends, and studying at a local high school.
