Student Interviewer's Comments

Jackie is a warm and friendly person who likes school, and enjoys making friends. He plays the drums in a band with his friends, and is happy when he gets the chance to perform in front of his classmates. He also leads the school's national anthem everyday. At home, Jackie likes to cook. His mother taught him to cook from a young age, so he is able to prepare his own meals. He is used to spending time with many different kinds of people, and is flexible within various environments. He is excited to take part in American high school activities, as he has heard that there are many clubs, events, and sports available for students. Jackie has natural leadership skills, and is calm yet outgoing.

Additional Comments

Jackie lives in Taiwan with his parents and two brothers. He is close to his family, and got the idea to become an exchange student from his older brother, who was an AYUSA exchange student as well. Jackie would like to travel and improve his English, and feels that spending a year abroad will help him to develop in many ways. Jackie's passion in life is music. Six months ago, Jackie bought a drum set. Though he has only been playing for a short while, he truly enjoys the time he spends practicing music, as it is relaxing, and has helped him to concentrate more in school. He would like to become a drummer for his school's band. His other hobbies include badminton, watching movies, and reading. An especially important hobby for him is volunteering. At home in Taiwan, he volunteers with a sports organization. He would be happy to try different types of community service in America.

About Ayusa

Since 1980, AYUSA has provided opportunities for more than 40,000 students from the U.S. and over 75 countries around the world to live and study through our programs. As the premier youth exchange organization in the United States, AYUSA strives to deliver the highest quality programs to students, host families, schools and communities. Student participants aged 15 through 18 learn about a new culture by living with a volunteer host family, making new friends, and studying at a local high school.
