Student Interviewer's Comments

Gurami is a respectful and mature student who knows that in life, under all circumstances, one must be calm and tolerant in order to practice sound judgment and understand one's surroundings. He describes himself as hard-working and sincere, as well as organized and tidy. Gurami gets along well with all the members of his family, and is excited to build a great relationship with his host family.

Additional Comments

Gurami lives in Tbilisi, the capitol of Georgia, which lays between the Caspian and Black Seas. He says of his home city that it is beautiful, filled with historic monuments and interesting sights. During the summer, Gurami and his family travel to a resort town in Georgia's mountains. There they enjoy nature, taking walks, having pic nics, and basking in the sun. In his spare time, Gurami likes to draw, listen to music, read, play billiards, and cook. His family likes it when he cooks meals for them, and they are especially fond of his special pancakes. Gurami lives with his parents, older brother, and grandmother, who is a renowned doctor in Georgia. They recently celebrated when she received the "Medal of Honor" from the Georgian president. Gurami too has made up his mind to study medicine in order to become a surgeon.

About Ayusa

Since 1980, AYUSA has provided opportunities for more than 40,000 students from the U.S. and over 75 countries around the world to live and study through our programs. As the premier youth exchange organization in the United States, AYUSA strives to deliver the highest quality programs to students, host families, schools and communities. Student participants aged 15 through 18 learn about a new culture by living with a volunteer host family, making new friends, and studying at a local high school.
