Student Interviewer's Comments

Viola is friendly, optimistic and intelligent. She is musical and creative, and loves to play the flute. She likes to do outdoor activities, and often goes for a walk with her parents and her younger sister. She is close to her family, and likes to go shopping with her mother in the city. Viola is fascinated by the USA, by its ethnic, religious, and racial diversity. She hopes to become a little more independent and confident, and plans to spend time with her host family practicing her English, and also telling them about Germany and her culture. She may be a bit shy at first, but she opens up quickly once she gets to know you, and is truly a pleasure to speak with. She will be a great addition to any host family she stays with.

Additional Comments

Viola has played the flute since she was nine years old. She often plays for her family, who loves to hear her, and has met her best friend playing, who is also a flutist. Since childhood, Viola has loved to be in nature and go hiking; she especially loves to go canoeing, because it is fun and gives her a lot of energy. She belongs to a club in her village, and they go canoeing on the Rhine River. Sometimes Viola likes to in-line skate with her friends. Viola wants to become more open-minded by learning a new way of life and experiencing a different culture, and at the same time she wants to share her own culture with new friends. In her own words, Viola is mature, creative, intelligent, warm-hearted, sympathetic, and good with animals.

About Ayusa

Since 1980, AYUSA has provided opportunities for more than 40,000 students from the U.S. and over 75 countries around the world to live and study through our programs. As the premier youth exchange organization in the United States, AYUSA strives to deliver the highest quality programs to students, host families, schools and communities. Student participants aged 15 through 18 learn about a new culture by living with a volunteer host family, making new friends, and studying at a local high school.
