Student Interviewer's Comments

Hashem is positive and energetic, and speaks English quite well. He is a motivated person, and hopes to accomplish many goals in life. He works hard in school and enjoys reading, but he is also very active, and loves to play soccer. He knows that he will experience a lot of culture shock during his stay abroad, but welcomes the journey ahead of him, and feels he will benefit from, and immensely enjoy the experiences that lay in store for him.

Additional Comments

Hashem wants to spend a year in the USA so that he can improve his English skills, and learn from the many new and diverse experiences that he will take part in. He wants to meet as many people as he can, and speak English as often as he can. Hashem lives with his four siblings and his parents in an area about an hour away from Jordan's capital, Amman. He gets along with his family well, and helps his siblings when he can. Like most boys in Jordan, Hashem loves to play soccer, and plays frequently with his best friends. Though young, Hashem is very accomplished for his age. He helped establish an English club with his father at his school, and is a tutor as well. He he tutors other students in math and science. Hashem has many hobbies including sketching 3D pictures, playing chess, reading, and listening to music.
