Calendar of Events

2010-2011

October 24th Halloween Party 6-9pm
Carve a Pumpkin contest and best costume contest.

November - Is a good month for Community Service. Feel free to find community service opportunities in your own city or town! Also in November we participate in International Education Week. All students must make a presentation in their school about their country.

December (usually 2nd Sat.) - Old City Park, Candlelight: A Dallas Holiday Tradition. Celebrate the season as Dallas residents did from 1840-1910, with crafts, music, dancing, children's activities and much more. Hundreds of hurricane lamps illuminate the pathways of Dallas' only historical village

January 22nd - Day in Fort Worth - Stock Yards for lunch and the Stock Show Rodeo in the afternoon. I would like to order tickets really early so we can all sit together at the Rodeo, and in a good location!

February 13th - International Dinner and Dance.

March 19th Visit to Downtown Dallas & Kennedy Museum.

May 1st - Re-entry Orientation; Details to follow.

Some Sunday in May - for A Day at the Ballpark in Arlington.
